Re: Shipment SHP-88421 - temperature excursion / preservation of evidence

We provide preliminary notice concerning shipment SHP-88421, declared value $186,000. Available logger evidence indicates an out-of-spec temperature event during the shipment. This notice is intended to preserve the claim while investigation and loss quantification continue.

Please preserve and provide within 48 hours all reefer/controller downloads, setpoint changes, alarm history, GPS/custody events, handoff records, inspection records, and other temperature-control records relating to this shipment.

Preliminary exposure is reserved up to the declared shipment value of $186,000. No statement in this preliminary notice waives any rights, defenses, mitigation position, or requirement for further evidence.
